Biography - Anthony Livhits, VP of Engineering

Anthony leads the developer, software and quality assurance teams at Bombora. As VP of Engineering, he is responsible for managing our analytical infrastructure, developing our products and creating efficient ways to process our data. Anthony has grown the engineering team from a small group in New York to a large global unit over the course of 4 years.

Prior to Bombora, Anthony was the Senior Technical Lead at Madison Logic. There, he managed one of their development teams, and discovered new traits that helped him lay the foundation for Bombora applications. Before Madison Logic, Anthony was an Armor Officer in the US Army. He served 4 years on active duty and 6 years in the NY Army National Guard. Anthony has also worked as a Programmer at Bloomberg and Developer at Marchex.

Anthony loves the outdoors. You can find him riding down the slopes on his skis or cycling through Manhattan's busy streets. He also enjoys extensive stays in nature by taking part in backpacking expeditions.

Anthony holds a Bachelor of Science in Computer and Information Science from CUNY - Brooklyn College.
